Purpose and legal basis of data processing Processing purposes: Internal company documentation and reporting on the "Client Event London" event. No publication of the photographs is planned. The photographs only document the event itself, not the participants. Legal basis: Art. 6 para. 1 lit f GDPR (legitimate interest of the controller)
Duration of storage or criteria for determining the duration The personal data (photos and videos) will be deleted taking into account your data subject rights or as soon as the purposes for which they were collected are no longer given.
Recipient categories Only internal processing by the controller
Your rights as a data subject You have the right to obtain information, free of charge, about the origin, recipient and purpose of your stored personal data. You also have the right to object and the right to data portability. Furthermore, you are entitled to request the correction, deletion and, under certain circumstances, the restriction of the processing of your personal data. You have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority: The Hessian Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, Gustav-Stresemann-Ring 1, 65189 Wiesbaden, Germany. Please note: Personal data published online is accessible worldwide, including in countries with lower levels of data protection. Consequently, further dissemination and use by unauthorized third parties cannot be ruled out. In the case of a deletion request, complete deletion of personal data from the internet cannot therefore be guaranteed.
Right to object You have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you. Upon receiving your objection, the controller will cease processing your personal data unless they can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing. These grounds must override the interests, rights, and freedoms of the data subject, or be necessary for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.
