COME to C.C.C

Comprehend Comprehensive Compression

When: December 4th to 6th 2025
Where: Leuven, Belgium

Dear participants,

After the global success of the 2024 C.C.C. event, we are beyond delighted in inviting you to join this year evolution.

Two days of the highest level reciprocal learning and sharing, starting from the pillars of appropriate compression, while building the most holistic and effective approach to vein-lymphatic disease management.

Everybody is invited to Connect and Create Content to be shared in the program of this groundbreaking Symposium, not by coincidence around Christmas time, so to sum up also the most significant scientific achievements of the past months, while collecting the most pro-active wishes for the upcoming year.

With this vision, we hope you'll like to C.C.C. us on 4th to 6th December 2025 so to accomplish the mission together.
